

EXAM OF HEAD AND NECK

If needed, Dr. Leonard examines the head looking for abnormal size or shape, areas of tenderness in muscles or bony structures, or abnormal hair. This may show signs of headache, side effects of medications, areas of injury, or effects of tumor to name a few examples.

Dr. Leonard palpates the neck, looking for painful spasm, lymph node enlargement or tenderness, weakness, or thyroid abnormalities.

