

EXAM OF ABDOMEN

Patient is in the supine position while Dr. Leonard palpates the abdomen, looking for tenderness, masses, or enlargement of the organs like the liver, kidney, spleen or bladder. Patients with neurological conditions like multiple sclerosis may have problems emptying their bladder which can be detected during palpation of the abdomen.

